

Winter-Spring Semester 2022

January 12–May 4

Wednesdays • 12:30pm & 6:30pm

*Livestreamed at 6:30pm:
FirstPresgreenville.org/media/livestream*

In learning lessons from the rise and fall of dynasties, divided loyalties, and fractured kingdoms, the opening chapters of 1 Samuel & 1 Kings are an exploration into ancient times that apply directly to ours.

God speaks into ordinary lives, adding fresh color and texture to the daily decisions of Hannah, Eli, Samuel, Saul, David, and Solomon as they struggle to handle major life challenges and respond to uncertainty.

Yet amidst the pressures of barrenness, battles, royal schemes, and shepherds, the greatest excitement is found not in the unfolding drama of historical and national events, but in the One each life points toward.

January

12	Richard Gibbons	Samuel
19	Richard Gibbons	Samuel
26	Richard Gibbons	Saul

February

2	Associate Pastor
9	Richard Gibbons	Saul
16	Richard Gibbons	Saul
23	Richard Gibbons	Saul

March

2	Richard Gibbons	David
9	Richard Gibbons	David
16	Richard Gibbons	David
23	Richard Gibbons	David
30	Richard Gibbons	David

April

6	Spring Break	not meeting
13	Holy Week	not meeting
20	Richard Gibbons	Life of Solomon
27	Richard Gibbons	Life of Solomon

May

4	Richard Gibbons	Life of Solomon
---	-----------------	-----------------